NEW DIRECTIONS FROM DESIGN WEEK 2014

AMAZING!

Seductive and creative interiors from around the globe

1

1 HAND BREATHE These divine 'bubble' pendants by Nendo for Levit use a reverse glassblowing process. Instead of blowing air into molten glass, the glassblower makes the lamp by blowing a bubble then sucking the air out. livingedge.com.au

3 IRON WILL Emerging sculptor Oliver Tanner has a way with heavy metal, cojaling and honing it into stunning works of art like this substantial wall piece that weighs 25kg. $4800. jamesalmondffurniture.com

4 INDIGENOUS ARTIST Christian Thompson is just one of the many artists who appears in a documentary hosted by Hetti Perkins, curator and daughter of Charles, airing this NAIDOC week in July on ABC1. abc.net.au/ortandoulsoul

5 CUTIPOL, THE CUTTING-EDGE Portuguese cutlery, around since 1964, is finally available in Australia. The elegant, ergonomic and minimalist designs are comprised of stainless steel and flashier options such as bronze, titanium and 24k gold. francoia.com.au

2 KRUG WAS ONCE described by an esteemed wine writer as the 'king of them all' and you'll certainly feel like royalty with a flute of the Krug 2003 Vivante Solaire in hand. Available from fine wine stores. krug.com

13 AUTOBAN, the Istanbul creative firm, has been wowing the world with interiors and products for more than 10 years. Now read the book — an homage to the team's design genius. gestalten.com
